

Winston Mizelle

Customer Success Manager - NAM
winston.mizelle@bakerhughes.com

Winston Mizelle has 22+ years of experience in condition monitoring and reliability engineering. As Customer Success Manager for North America, Winston provides expertise to clients in the ongoing development of digital transformation strategy utilizing Bently Nevada's Machinery Health as a Service (MHaaS). Winston has served in various roles throughout his CdM/PdM career from Applications Engineer, Training, to Director of Field Services. He has experience with multiple technologies including lubrication, infrared and ultrasound. Winston's his network architecture background helps Bently Nevada's initiative in enabling customers with Industry 4.0. which includes aspects of digital transformation, digital twins and the adoption of Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning prescriptive analytics to drive reliability outcomes.

Winston holds an associate degree in information systems from Mississippi Gulf Coast College and a B.S. in business administration, management from Sam Houston State University. He is Vibration Level I & II Certified through Technical Associates of Charlotte and is based in Houston, TX.